

1872, ch. 153.

520. It shall be the duty of each inspector to keep a correct record of the locations of all boilers in his district, when each boiler was inspected, the condition of the same at the time of inspection, the instructions given to the engineers in charge, the certificates issued, and the amount of steam pressure allowed in each certificate, and the boilers condemned or ordered to be repaired; also a correct account of all money received or paid out; and they shall report the same annually to the comptroller of the State.

1874, ch. 96.

521. The inspectors shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars each; and all moneys collected, after deducting the necessary incidental expenses of the office, shall be paid over to the treasurer of the State.

1872, ch. 153.

522. Nothing in this sub-title of this article shall conflict with the ordinance of the mayor and city council of Baltimore which requires their permission for the erection of steam boilers in that city.

1886, ch. 503.

523. Every steam boiler insurance company doing business in this State shall have a resident inspector, whose duty it shall be to make inspections of steam boilers submitted for insurance to such steam boiler insurance company; and any owner or renter of a steam boiler who has the same insured in a steam boiler insurance company doing business in this State, in compliance with the laws thereof, and having a resident inspector and an established system of inspection, must immediately after the first annual inspection in each year by such resident inspector of such steam boiler insurance company, present to the State inspector of the district in which the said steam boilers are located, the certificate of inspection of the said company; and the said company shall be charged and chargeable with a fee of one dollar for each and every boiler so inspected and insured, which shall be paid to the State inspector with such certificate; provided, that when there is more than one steam boiler belonging to the same owner
